

Taking Turns

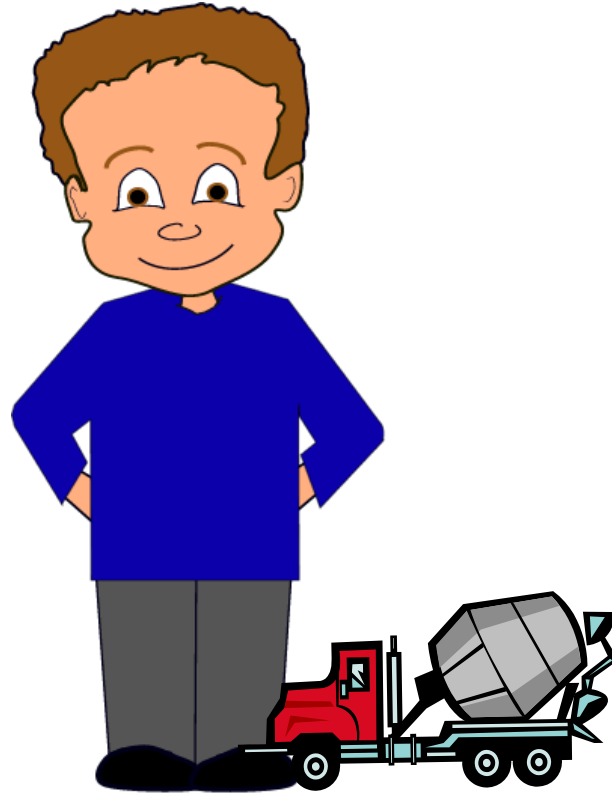

Created by George Timlin

This is Billy.

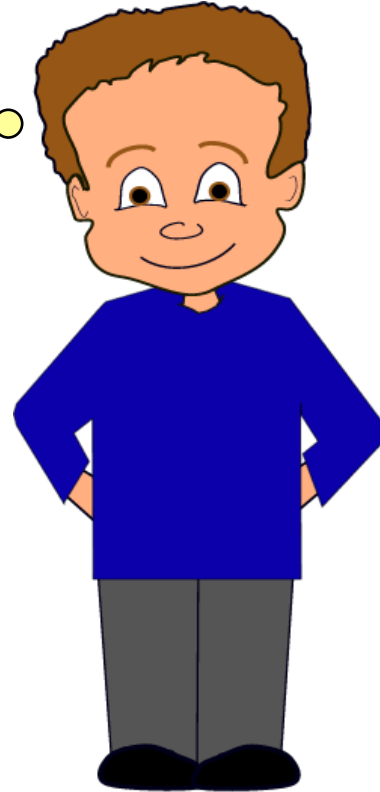

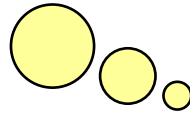

Billy likes trucks.

This is my favourite truck. It's a cement mixer. It mixes cement then dumps it. My truck is red and it has black wheels. I like to push my truck down slopes and make it go very fast. And.....

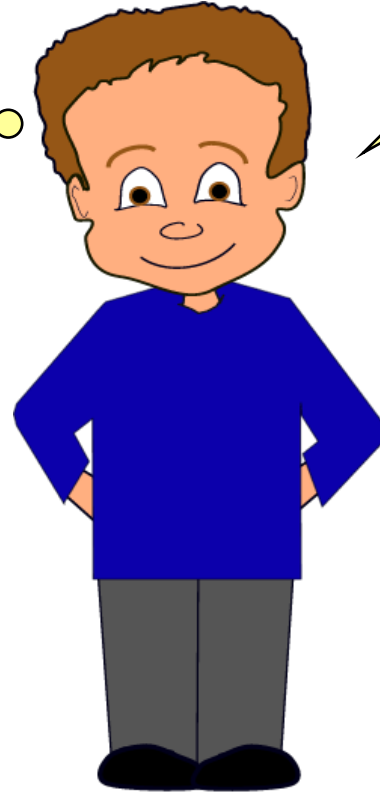

Billy likes to talk about trucks.

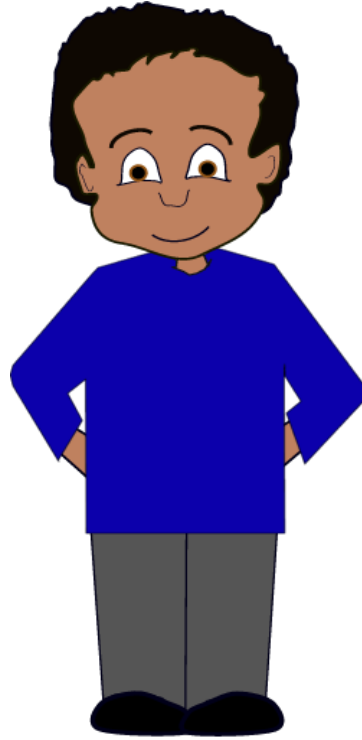

Billy likes to think about trucks.

Trucks are great!!

Billy likes to think and talk about trucks. It makes him feel very happy.

This is Billy's friend Imran.

Imran likes cats.

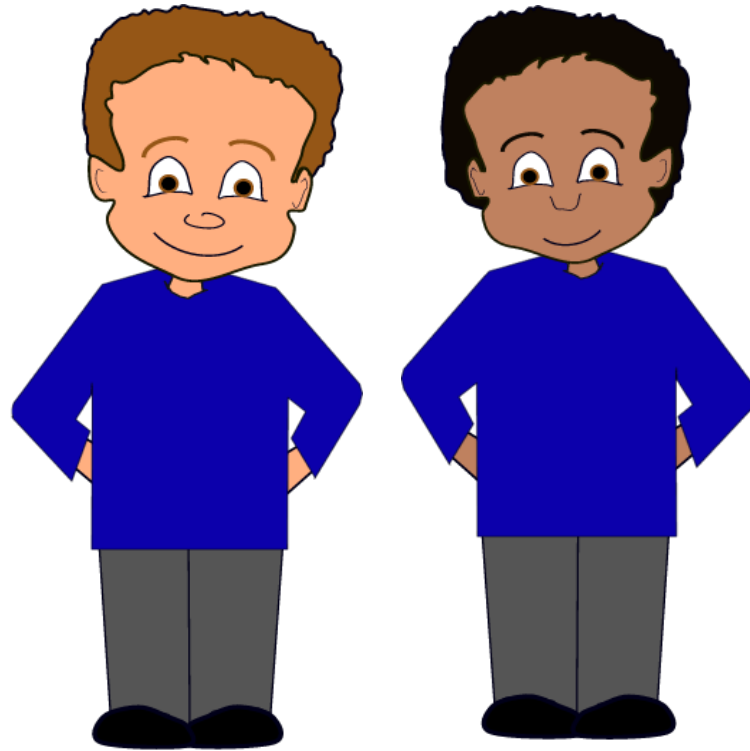

This is my cat. He is called Minty. He is brown, and his fur is very soft. I like to play with him. And.....

Imran likes to talk about cats.

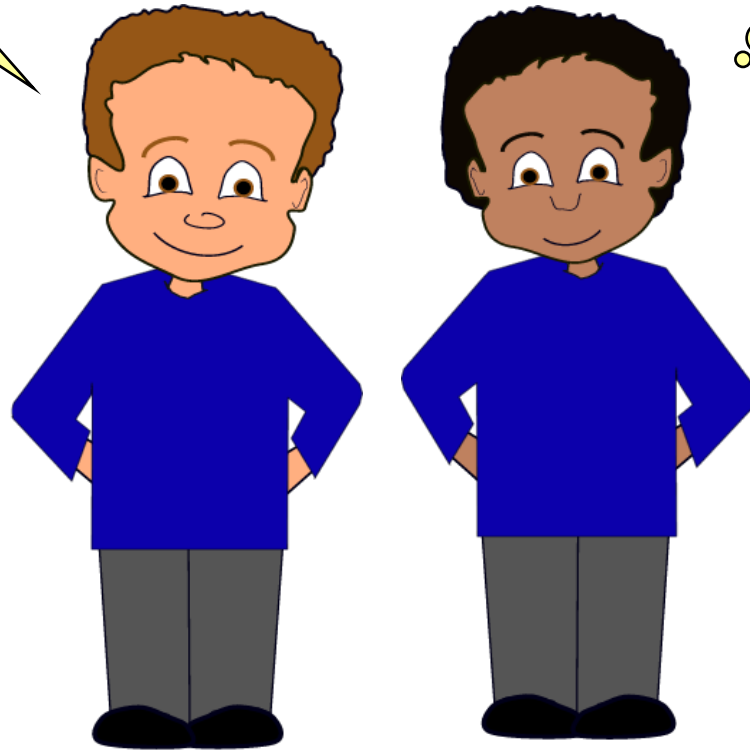

Imran likes to think and talk about cats.

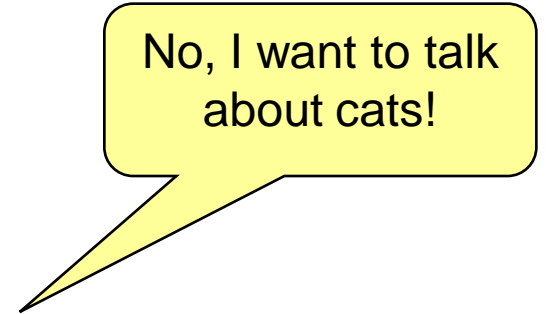

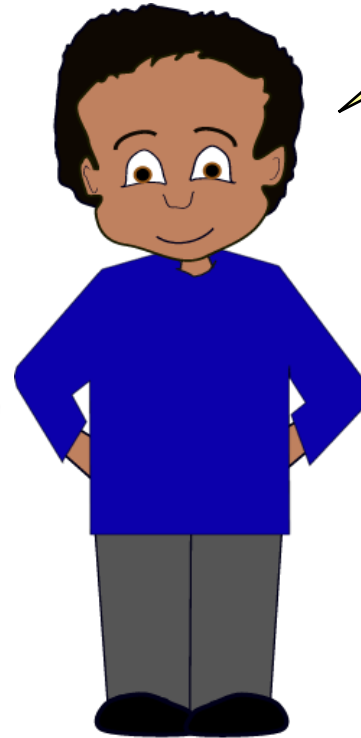

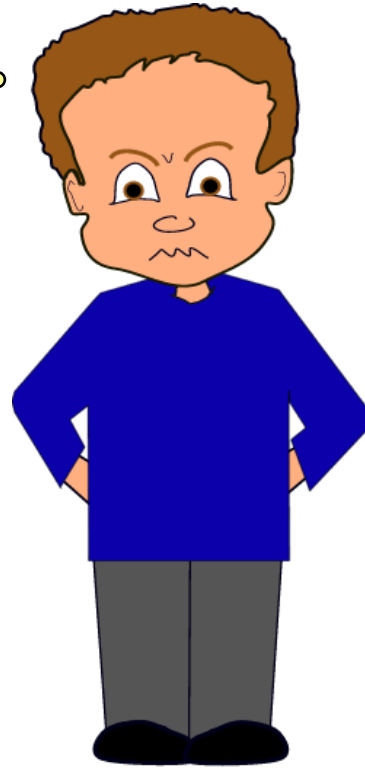

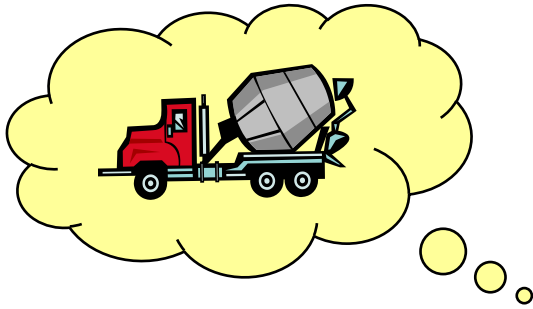

Sometimes, Billy and Imran play together.

We must talk about trucks!

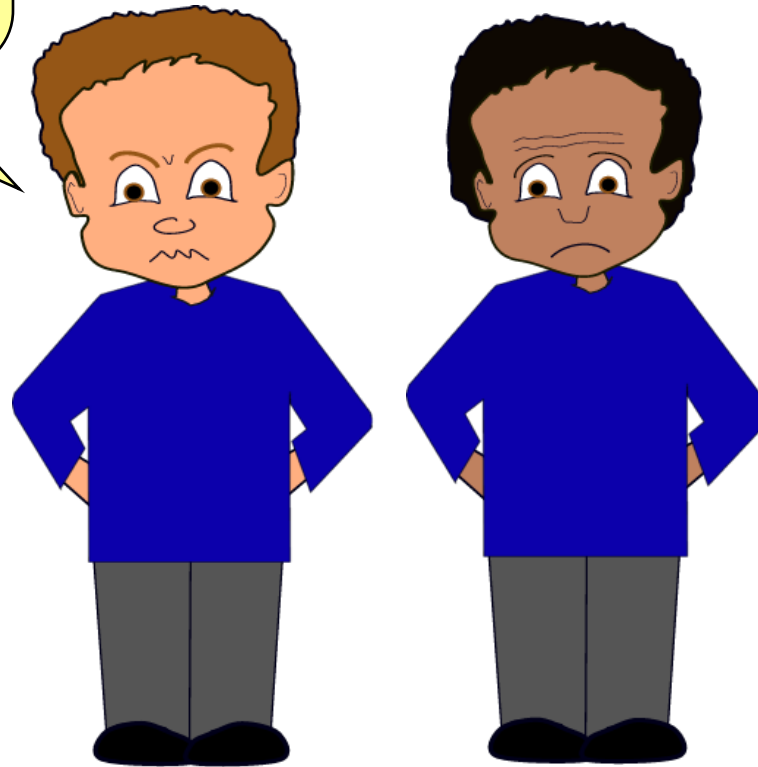

Billy wants to talk about trucks, but Imran isn't listening. He's thinking about cats!

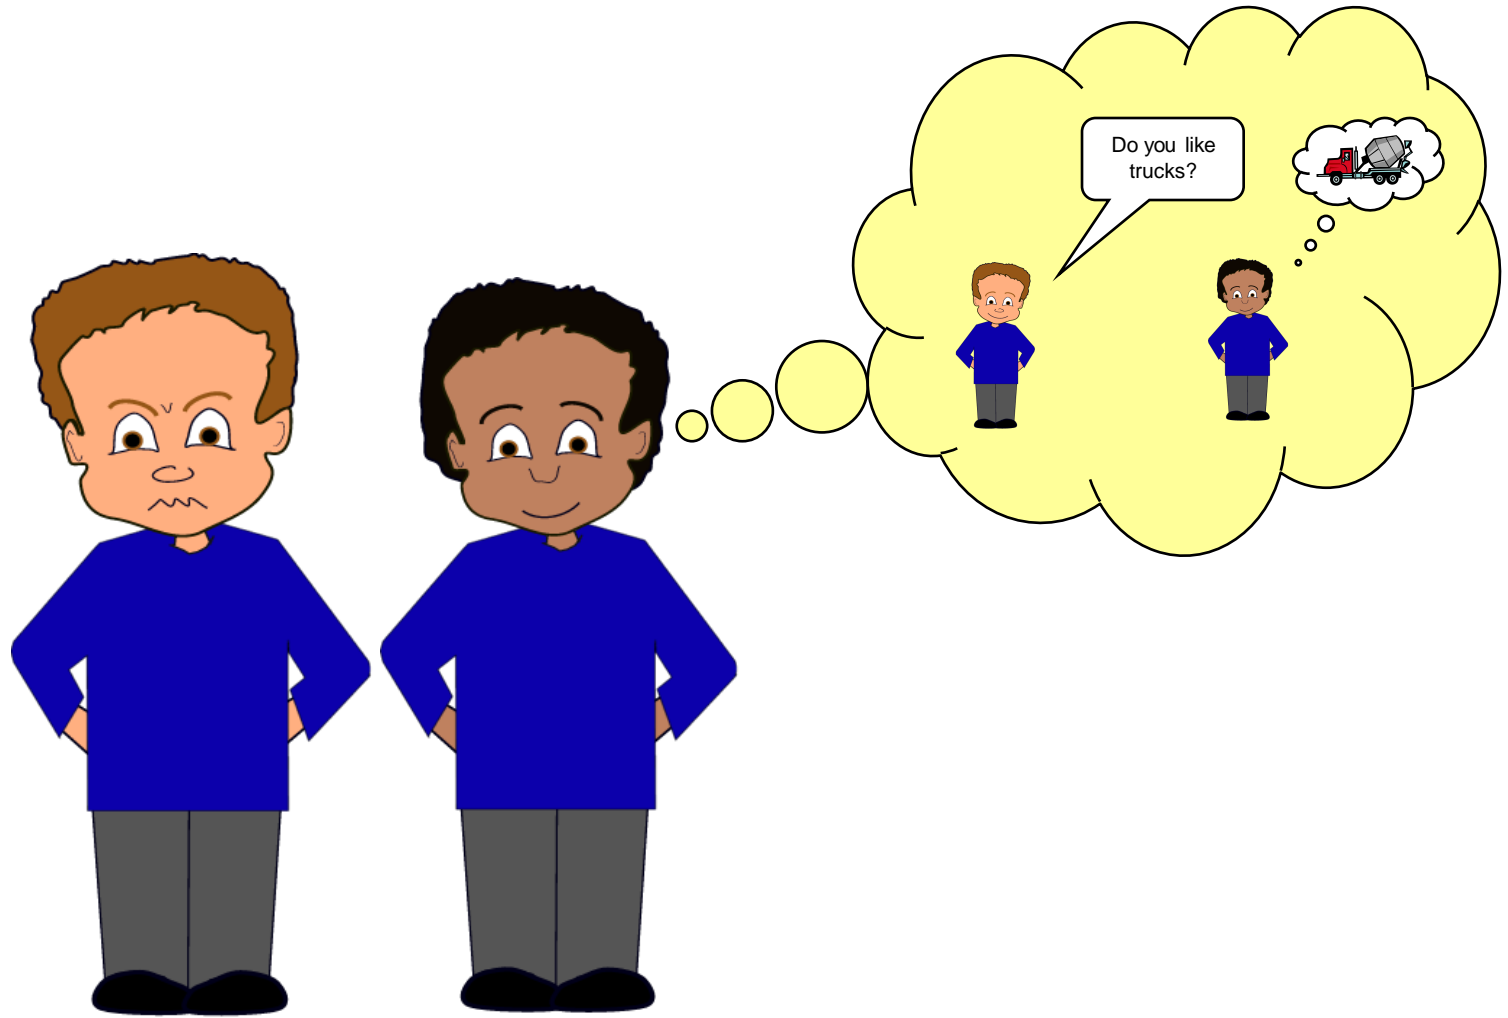

Imran isn't interested in trucks, he wants to talk about cats.

That's it, you are not listening to me, and I am talking to you about trucks. If you don't listen I will not be your friend!!!

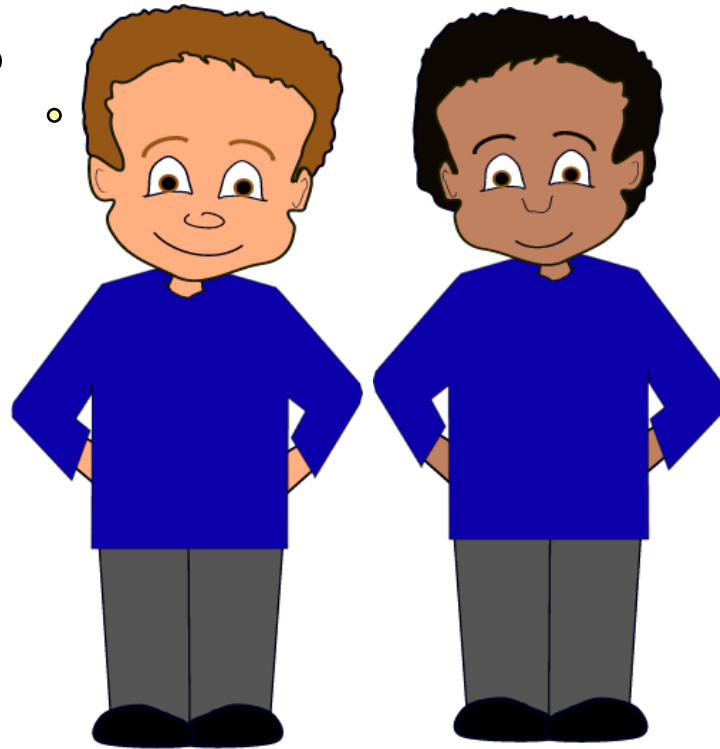

Billy is very cross, because Imran doesn't want to talk about trucks. Billy shouts at Imran, which makes Imran very sad.

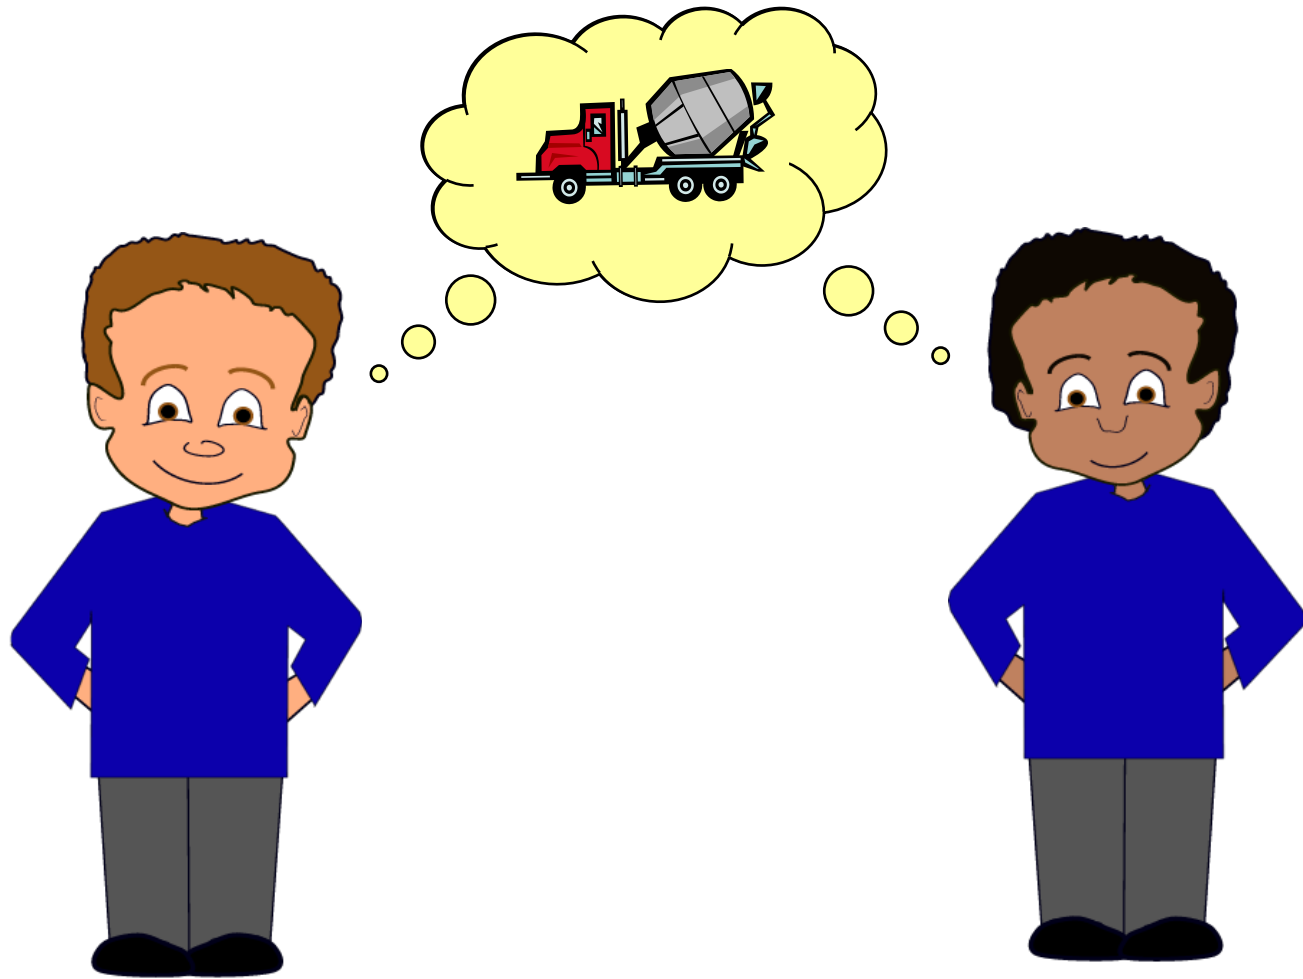

Then Imran had a brilliant idea! They could take turns to talk about the things they like.

What a brilliant idea!!

Billy thinks Imran's idea is very good.

Billy and Imran know they can take turns to talk about the things they are interested in. Sometimes they even think about the same thing.
